FERNE ANIMAL SANCTUARY IS A LEADING CARER OF NEGLECTED AND UNLOVED ANIMALS IN THE SOUTH WEST, AND OUR SERVICES HAVE NEVER BEEN IN GREATER NEED.

Every year we help hundreds of domestic pets, farm animals and horses whose owners can no longer look after them. When they first arrive many of the animals need urgent medical attention, are malnourished, or are suffering from flea and worm infestations.

Once they are fit and well we find new loving families for dogs and cats, and offer all of our animals a safe, warm home for as long as they need it. Many stay for the rest of their lives.

As a charity we rely entirely on the generosity of people like you to support our work.

WHY BECOME A FRIEND?

Pets offer us unquestioning friendship, and it is sad when they are abandoned by their owners. By becoming a Friend of Ferne Animal Sanctuary you can return some of that friendship. Please set up a regular donation today to ensure that we are always there for every animal that needs us.

In return you will receive:

- ✓ A membership card
- ✓ A car sticker
- ✓ 3 @Ferne magazines each year
- ✓ Monthly e-newsletters
- ✓ Discount vouchers for our gift shop and café
- ✓ Invitations to our special events
- ✓ A copy of our Annual Review

On the attached form you will see recommended minimum donation amounts for our individual, joint and family Friends. By adding just a little more each month you will also be able to benefit from unlimited visits to the Sanctuary each year.

WHAT WE DO

Set up in 1940 to look after servicemen and women's pets whilst they were overseas fighting World War Two, Ferne Animal Sanctuary has been looking after animals in the South West for over 75 years.

Located in Somerset's beautiful Blackdown Hills, the Sanctuary covers 51 acres of meadows, woodlands and ponds. Managed for its conservation value, it is the ideal environment for the animals we look after, and also attracts wildlife – such as butterflies, dragonflies and birds – and thousands of paying visitors each year.

Ruffles & Truffles' story

Best friends Ruffles and Truffles are Kune Kune pigs whose owners were unable to care for them at home when they grew too large.

At the Sanctuary we give them the special loving care they deserve, making sure they stay exercised and healthy. We regularly massage lotion into their skin to help avoid dryness, parasites and sunburn; while they just enjoy getting a good scratch!

Wotsit's story

Little Wotsit is a miniature Shetland pony whose medical problems made him unsuitable for the child his previous owners had bought him for. Despite standing at just 32 inches tall, he has a huge personality who brightens up the Sanctuary as a permanent resident.

We aim to teach people how best to look after their animals, and host a number of community events and school groups each year.

Once a new animal is admitted to the Sanctuary we provide medical treatment on site and then help them recuperate through appropriate human contact, and socialisation with other animals. Wherever possible dogs and cats are rehomed within 40 miles of the Sanctuary. Some animals however become permanent residents, joining over 300 other:

- Goats
- Rabbits
- Guinea pigs
- Sheep
- Ferrets
- Chinchillas
- Chickens
- Pigs
- Donkeys
- Birds
- Tortoises
- Cows
- Horses
- Ponies

PLEASE CONSIDER BECOMING A FRIEND OF FERNE ANIMAL SANCTUARY BY SETTING UP A REGULAR GIFT TO HELP MORE ANIMALS LIKE LAYLA.

Layla's story

One of five kittens brought to the Sanctuary in a distressed state; Layla was malnourished, riddled with fleas and infested with worms. Several of her siblings had ear and eye infections, and Layla's right eye had to be removed. All five kittens – including Layla – are now enjoying life with new loving families.
